Mother dear;-

Here it is 8:30 Saturday evening

and I'm home in my pajamas listening to another fellow's radio with about every one else in the house out to the show or something.

The reason for <sup>this</sup> confinement is that I worked from 9 to 6.30. you remember I told you about the store calling last week and wanting me for Saturday. Well, I went down the following Monday and told them I would be available for Saturdays as I had changed my schedule. So they told me to come in.

I worked as a floorwalker (am I tired?) at thirty cents an hour. I made $2.70. But it is certainly tough work. I think I can have the job every Sat. if I want it. I also sold my meal ticket for $.50 & my pass-

I got a letter from Curt last week. He said he'd like to come out to a game and bring Barbara with him. I told Bob, and he thought it was a good idea if every thing was ~~both~~ <sup>both</sup> Dutch; so I am going to write him to that effect.

I received my laundry today and Bob's watch came thru okay as did my other, well-laundered clothes.

I finally lost my cold by playing golf with Clay Wright and his father. I have been getting my exercise this week by swimming.

as to what I wrote Mrs. Buzzell, Bonnie did not misunderstand. I have been disgusted with spending my perfectly, well-earned money for some of the junk they dish out around here. you may ~~rem~~ remember that I mentioned the fact book for another $.50. So you can see, I ~~did~~ did pretty well for the day.

Last week I <sup>& told them</sup> also went up to the appointment office that I needed a job badly. I said I hadn't been eating very well because of my financial condition. That's what I call a white lie.

As to my vaccination, I didn't have ~~to be~~ <sup>it</sup> when I went down for my physical exam, the nurse put down I had to be vaccinated. Well, I put up a terrible stink, and I got to see the doctor. I told him the situation about my previous siege with smallpox; and he, like a good fellow he was, decided I didn't have to ~~be~~ <sup>have it</sup> again.

Syracuse certainly did a sweet job today. I imagine letting Baldwin Wallace beat them 19-7.

that I would like to go to Harvard for Business
ad. Well, I wrote them last week whether or not I needed an a. b. degree or not. They replied that I did but that I should try to combine some Business ad. subjects out here.
So in mid-year, ~~I shall~~ I shall arrange to do this.

Concerning Ann Carman and her looks, it must be true. I heard the same report from Curt.

Bob hasn't yet quit his job, but he does expect ~~to~~ to one of these days.

Quite a surprise to find Dad needed glasses, but I guess you can't have anything on him.

I certainly would like to come home
one of these week-ends since I no longer have any Saturday classes. But out with my new position I don't suppose I'll be able to make it.

I forget to tell<sup>v</sup> you that this Lincoln store is a chain outfit. It has most of its stores out thru Mass., around Boston +
Quincy. so the experience won't hurt me.

Last week the town here at 301
warily held house elections. yours truly
was elected president due to the heavy frank tax vote.

I had a very delightful letter from Bonita Marie the other day. She certainly twines the dollar words around. I may answer if I get the time. But if I don't,
I know she'll read this letter and I'll say thank you now.

I have said enough, so I'll sign off
for now. But in closing I send my regards to you, Dad, Grandma, Bonnie, + Joe.
(I also meant it about the polka dot tie.)

Love,
Don
